Course Design Clinic
May 19 & 20, 2025
Newman Library – Goodall Room

Center for Excellence in TEACHING AND LEARNING

Monday, May 19, 2025

8:30 – 9:00	Coffee and Breakfast Items
9:00 – 10:00	Welcome and Introduction - Catherine Amelink, Director of the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning Keynote: From TL;DR to OMG I Get It: Rebuilding Student Reading Skills in the Attention Economy - Ivonne Wallace-Fuentes, Assistant Director for Professional Development for CETL
10:00 – 12:00	Stages of Backward Course Design and Learning Objectives - Overview and worktime
12:00 – 12:30	Universal Design for Learning - Pearl Xie, Director of Universal Design for Learning and Accessibility Services
12:30 – 1:30	Lunch
1:30 – 2:00	Open and Affordable Course Materials - Anita Walz, Assistant Director of Open Education and Scholarly Communication Librarian
2:00 – 4:00	Connecting Learning Objectives to Assessment and Assignment Design - Overview and worktime

Tuesday, May 20, 2025

8:30 – 9:00	Coffee and Breakfast Items
9:00 – 9:45	Canvas Tips and Tricks - Danielle Thacker, Senior Learning Technologies Specialist
9:45 – 12:00	Connecting Learning Objectives to Teaching Activities - Overview and worktime
12:00 – 1:00	Lunch
1:00 – 2:30	Mapping Your Course - Overview and worktime with "Instructional Planning Map" worksheet
2:30 – 4:00	Designing the Course Syllabus - University policies, resources, and worktime

@Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning   @virginiatech_cetl